Global Cloud Growth Solutions
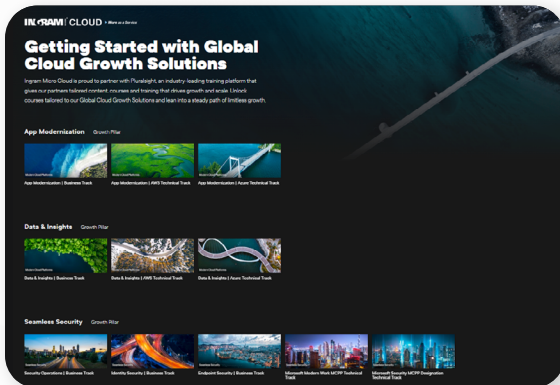

Ultimate Growth for End-Customers

Bringing the skills for success to one convenient place

Ingram Micro Cloud is proud to partner with Pluralsight, an industry-leading training platform that gives our partners tailored content, courses and training that drives growth and scale. Unlock courses tailored to our Global Cloud Growth Solutions and lean into a steady path of limitless growth.

There is always room for even more growth. As partners face the growing list of technical skills required from their teams, they can overcome this challenge by upskilling their existing employees. This continued commitment to knowledge allows partners and their teams to accomplish more by transforming their entire workforce to meet the ebbs and flows of their client landscape. As partners consume the content on Pluralsight, they'll be better equipped to meet the demands of their clients, able to perform more services, and ultimately driving more consumption.

A partnership of growth

Through this new partnership with Pluralsight, Ingram Micro Cloud has also curated specific learning paths that are customized to our Global Cloud Growth Solutions. Partners can develop their skill sets in our four core solution areas: Modern Cloud Platforms, Seamless Security, Connected Workplace, Business Performance. You can upskill your knowledge through courses and training that align directly to your business needs.

What sets Pluralsight apart from the rest

There truly is no limit to the knowledge available. Pluralsight offers the largest library of up-to-date cloud courses, labs and learning paths covering AWS, Azure and GCP. Partners can focus on all major cloud providers or specialize in just one through a library of hands-on labs, cloud playgrounds and practice tests. You'll learn from actual cloud practitioners, not just generic instructors.

Best of all, Pluralsight offers a management portal that allows admins to assess, assign courses, create teams and check progress towards learning goals for teams or individuals. Easily ensure your teams are setup with the skills they need to deliver on your organization objectives.
